Property Description

Glistening city lights, colourful sunsets, fresh mountain breezes. The beautiful custom-designed home has been constructed of quality materials and the finest workmanship, in a spacious home site, that rises above the rest on the hills between Escazu and Santa Ana. Although this architectural mansion is located in the mountains, it is just five to ten minutes by car from the main shopping centers, offices, stores, schools, hospitals, social clubs and restaurants, enjoying excellent access in and out of Escazú and Santa Ana, in addition to all services that a residence of its category requires. The house sits in a non-gated community of independent properties, organized by all the residents of this luxurious area with their own security patrol, taking care of ornament and maintenance of the entire sector. The property enjoys eternal views of the valley without interruption and impeccable gardens, in a prestigious location of the city.
