Property Description

This rustic 2 Bedroom, 1 Bath Bungalow is located just 26 km. from the Coastal town of Golfito in Southern Costa Rica, an easy 30 minute jaunt to the bay. The rural setting is private and quiet, set amongst mixed forests and only 4 kilometers from the Inter-American highway. This home and farm overlooking Rio Claro is a turn-key property. All appliances are new, in fact everything is new, toilet/sink, Washer and Dryer, air conditioning units, Kitchen cabinetry. Recently remodeled, the original construction was built about 20 years ago by a German. The concrete block is solid; there are no cracks in any walls or the floor. New exterior concrete covered patio with built-in firepit is a great place for relaxing, entertaining and BBQs. This property has plenty of room for some new plantings, more fruit trees are needed and there is plenty of space to plant a garden, or build a small guest house, perhaps a pool? The nearby spring on the property delivers fresh, non-chloride water year-round, the pool could be of a natural design, with water running 24/7 in a great location set lower than the house and overlooking the town of Rio Claro in the distance.
