Property Description

Breathtaking setting from this 10 acre parcel that is located back in the hydro rich valley of the Diamante Falls. The land fronts a year round stream that has multiple cascades and pools, and comes flowing out of the upper section of the property, which is primary forest and absolutely incredible with big old growth trees.The lower and mid section of the land is open, and ready for planting fruit trees and constructing cabins or home of your choice, with a gentle rise in topography that runs parallel with the stream and has an upper terrace that is level, and this site has an excellent view down the Baru River Valley and north to Manuel Antonio Point with sunsets 6 months out of the year! The Diamante valley is heavily protected rainforest lands with a mix of locals and foreigners that are growing food supply, sharing in art and music and other talents while living in harmony with nature! The elevation offers the perfect climate for ideal living conditions.
