Property Description

On this beautiful beachfront property is a main house, as well as a private guest house, both are fully furnished completely renovated in 2009. The main house has two units with separate entrances. The ground level unit has a nicely furnished bedroom, living-room, bathroom, kitchen and a spacious patio to spend evenings outdoor. The upper unit is a little larger, has an additional bedroom and a veranda instead of the patio, but except that it is just like the lower unit. Both share a laundry room. Mango, palm, banana and cashew trees in the garden attract macaws, parrots and other tropical birds which can be admired while sitting on the veranda or the patio of the house. The ocean is always in your sight and once you step out of the garden you're right at the beach, feeling the sand under your feet. It's perfect for everybody who wishes to live close to the ocean and likes to enjoy a private and quiet garden with unique nature.
