Property Description

Casa El Paraiso Tropical is a nature lovers' dream located just 1.5 km from the renowned Barrigona Beach, a famous surfing spot and an important national park. This beautiful property includes two houses on half a hectare of land offering both space and privacy just minutes from both Samara and Nosara. The houses feature large bedrooms and bathrooms, fully equipped kitchens, and vaulted ceilings made from locally sourced wood. Adjacent to the two houses is a large patio with an open BBQ-style kitchen perfect for making memories with your friends and family. Situated on half a hectare of quintessential Costa Rican jungle with trails cut throughout, there is an additional terrace with a beautiful view that could be used to expand the property. Accessed from a neighborhood street that connects with the main road less than 300 meters, this property is fenced with a gate with a garage with space for two cars and additional storage.
