Property Description

Located on the hillside that surveys the Tamarindo Bay, the view from Casa La Palapa is unbeatable. The jumble of roof tops and palm fronds in the foreground gives way to the vast expanse of ocean stretching into the distance as far as the eye can see. Homey, yet elegant, this spacious seven-bedroom five-bath house is made unique by the immense open-air palapa that is the entire second floor. A grassy yard surrounds the main house on one side and an ample sun deck with a large pool lies on the other. Inside the majestic wooden doors of the front entrance, the living area is walled by sliding glass doors that paint a perpetual panorama in greens and blues. A first floor master bedroom lies to the right, looking out over the gardens and pool. On the back side of the house are two bedrooms, one with a double bunk and a single bed, the other with two single beds. A full bath is located between them and serves also as a powder room for guests.
