Property Description

This is a modern and brand new townhouse with all the details and feel you deserve. The design incorporates natural elements and light in a balance that allows flow. Walk into an open living/dining room that opens to a enclosed green backyard visible through ceiling to floor glass doors. The kitchen sports granite counter tops and stylish hardware and cabinets. The floors are light porcelain 50x50 and the ceilings are high adding to the modern, clean feel throughout. Leading up to the second floor the wall is tiled and opens up to a shared common area and a terrace. There are two bedroom each with built in closets and a shared bath. The master bedroom has a private bath and plenty of closet space. This home has two covered parking spaces and is conveniently located 20 minutes from San Jose and in the heart of the corporate parks of Heredia. This is a wonderful opportunity to live close to work or to rent to the countless employees working in the area.
