Property Description

This great colonial architecture home is located in one of the most desirable private gated communities of Santa Ana - Escazú. This private up-scale gated community offers: 24 hour security, camera surveillance, internal guards on duty, a full service club house, a large heated adult's swimming pool, heated Kid's swimming pool, gym area, tennis courts, basket ball court, kid's playground, walking trails and green areas all over. This house was built with high quality finishes, blending modern living with elegance and sophistication. This great house offers la split master plan with the service areas on one side of the house, the large social areas in the middle of the house and connected to the terrace, covered BBQ area, private pool and gardens and the bedrooms section on the other side of the house. Large windows allow for natural light throughout the interior of the house. The master bedroom with its sitting and office area, ample walk-in closet, a master bath with Jacuzzi tub, shower and two lavatories, and an ample terrace with views to the pool, gardens and the mountains, is very privately set up on the second floor.
