Property Description

Nestled along the scenic Nandamojo river and just a few minutes from some of Costa Rica's top beaches for surf and sightseeing, this beautiful home represents the best the Nicoya Peninsula has to offer. It features a spacious, hacienda-style main house (2 BR/2 BA) and two cabins (1 BR/1 BA) built around a gorgeous pool in an oasis-like environment. The entire property is shaded by beautiful native Costa Rican forest, maintaining a year-round cool environment. This project was designed with love and has many features that would make it a perfect home or rental property. In addition to the home and cabins, there is a two-car carport, a roofed barbecue area, a storage bodega, nature trails leading to the river and lush landscaping. A concrete patio connects the main home's large porch with the pool and cabins, creating a common area that is an ideal social space. The construction style used throughout the property pays homage to the region's hacienda-based traditions - beautiful wood columns and ceilings are combined with white walls and a clay tile roof for an extremely charming effect.
