Property Description

Welcome to Casa Moana. An ethically and aesthetically designed home that provides the perfect balance between luxury, comfort and a light footprint on the Earth. This brand new, eco-friendly home is located in the exclusive beach front community of Tamarindo Preserve. A tranquil residence where Playa Tamarindo meets Playa Langosta. Casa Moana is a low consumption home offering energy efficient appliances, sustainable materials, open floor plan with spacious rooms and teak terraces, Costa Rican exotic woods throughout and modern tropical design. Environmentally conscious in construction and stylish in design and decor. Some other features include an electric car charging station, indoor green wall, floor to ceiling sliders open to deck and pool, extra large walk-in showers, indoor gardens, solar panels, water softener and filtration systems and much more. This 5 bedroom home is the perfect vacation home on the beach, a full time residence or income producing vacation rental property.
