Property Description

A unique opportunity in the market, one of the few houses that are in the area of Las Palmas where a condominium area is predominant. Located a few hundred meters from the shores of Playas del Coco you can enjoy the sun, beach, and sand in just a few steps. In addition, this house offers its future owner not only privacy but also the comfort of not having to be part of a condominium owner free of condominium fees. It is the dream home for people who value living near the sea but want to maintain a greater degree of privacy in their life. Casa Martin Pescador not only has these advantages in terms of its location near the sea, but it is also one of the commercial areas with the greatest boom in Playas del Coco, just a few blocks away you have a wide variety of restaurants with the best cuisine in the area, Italian, Mexican or Chinese are just some of the few incredible cuisines that you can find, in addition to other businesses such as coffee shops, spa, doctor, bar, and supermarkets.
