Property Description

Have you been looking to find a home in Playas del Coco, just walking distance to the beach and near Las Palmas center, besides that, with a top floor ocean view point? This captivating 4-bedroom home sits on almost 1/2 Acre land. A gem tucked at the end of the road, with a private access and an electric gate, is surrounded by fruit trees, plants, and plenty of yard area for kids and family to enjoy games and parties. A large swimming pool, with a covered BBQ area and area just for your patio furniture and other amenities. Plenty of parking and a covered carport for your vehicle is available as well. The classic, yet modern home's design will catch your eye, with the rock and metal details in the construction, doors, and windows and third floor entertaining area with views of the ocean and sunsets. As you enter the house, you'll discover an open living room to the left-hand side, and a very spacious kitchen, with numerous wooden cabinets, a wooden counter and stainless steel appliances (Stove and fridge).
