Property Description

This incredible residence has been thought and designed to the last detail, located in one of the most exclusive residential condominiums in the east of the city, It offers the security and exclusivity that every family yearns for together with the convenience of being less than 5 minutes from malls, hospitals and private educational centers. The property has large and beautiful gardens around it, it also has a house for pets worthy of a king, its owners thought of everything so it has designed on the first floor a complete apartment for visits with space for two single beds, separate bathroom and its own kitchenette so if you are one of those who like to have constant visits from family and friends I am sure you will love this residence. The kitchen has been recently remodeled with imported furniture from Italy with accessories from top German lines, important data that cannot be ignored is that the whole house has Euro-profile windows with white PVC lining and high-grade acoustic insulation capacity.
