Property Description

Playa Negra's La Choza is driven by a dynamic and potent vision easily distinguished in the design and is just steps away from one of the most beautiful surfing and swimming beaches in Costa Rica. Wake up to the sweeping views of the Pacific Ocean and the lovely views of the distant mountains from your canopy bed. You'll step out to the huge terrace and entertainment area that are overlooking the lush garden, rich with tropical birds and butterflies. Then stroll to the beach for an early morning surf, swim, or walk. La Choza was architect designed for the ultimate in luxury and convenience while maintaining a bond with the beauty and culture of Costa Rica. Natural materials and renowned local artists and craftsmen were selected to create an environment of luxury outdoor tropical living with an Indonesian flair. Upon arriving to the main floor of this lovely ocean view home you will enter into an expansive chef's kitchen that includes an area for your guests to sit and be a part of your culinary entertainment.
