Property Description

Grande Salvaje is designed to coexist and integrate respectfully with nature. Inspired by the surrounding flora and fauna, these homes have been designed based on regenerative and sustainable principles to integrate and coexist with the natural surroundings. A community that can harmoniously merge with nature is being created to allow you to live in equilibrium, steps away from the ocean. These homes are located on walking distance to restaurants, gym, tennis court and Parque Nacional Marino Las Baulas. Located just steps away from the white sand beach of Playa Grande, which is one of the most consistent surf spots in north Guanacaste, Perfectly positioned to embrace views, sea breezes, and the light at sunrise and sunset. Designed for minimal impact, in between the trees and to further our connection to nature. Our houses are designed around the textures and colors of Guanacaste's natural senses.
