Property Description

You will never lack activity here! Black Stallion Hills is just minutes from the center of Tamarindo and an hour to the Liberia International Airport. It has become the 'goto' place for families to set their roots here in the area. They find it is just close enough to all the hustle and bustle, infrastructure, doctors, dentists, and everything else that Tamarindo has to offer but it is just far enough away to enjoy a tranquil lifestyle within a real community of mostly expats from around the world. Within the community they have horse tours, zip lines, and almost daily barbecue dinners at the community's center. The lot is an estate lot surrounded by nature. It is just a minute to the main entrance and the paved road to all points. Size matters! Nearly the entire 1.25 acres are flat and buildable. Here, you can construct 15% of the property and go two stories. 15% is about 8000ft<sup>2</sup> on the first floor.
