Property Description

This beautiful home was finished in October 2018 and built with top quality construction materials and state-of-the-art finishes, all clearly noticeable through all corners of the house. It is located within Las Golondrinas gated community at Hacienda Pinilla, where its privately accessed beach will always be a short walk away. Prepared to be swept away as soon as you enter this fantastic 4-bedroom property! With an open concept for the common areas, you will find the openness and natural lighting to be part of the key ingredients for this great property. All of these areas open up to the ample private pool, allowing you to entertain large groups with ease, or just find comfort in the spacious living room that opens up directly to the dining room and kitchen. Each of the bedrooms in this amazing two-story home has its own bathroom, providing you with privacy and allowing for a more comfortable living.
