Property Description

This two-story Greek Colonial style home has a very spacious and excellent architectural distribution. The first floor has a large office with its own bathroom and entrance. The living room and dining room area has views and access to the beautiful terrace, pool, and manicured gardens. The kitchen is built with fine hard wood and granite countertops with a fully equipped island. The design of the house is open concept with its high ceilings and abundant windows throughout the house that keep it cool at all times of the day, it also has two central air conditioning units distributed on both floors. The house features a utility room with a maid's quarters and large laundry room. The second floor has a tv room/playroom with a balcony to enjoy the views of the Escazú mountains. Here you will find 3 bedrooms each with its own bathroom. The large master bedroom has two beautiful balconies on each side with views to the mountains and pool area, a Jacuzzi, and a Walk in Closet.
