Property Description

Enjoy incredible mountain and valley views from this huge, private lot in Lomas del Mar, Guanacaste, Costa Rica! Lomas del Mar is a gated community of estate-sized lots and homes located a little off the beaten path where nature meets luxury. Extremely private with lots of space between neighbors. It's a place for those who want to live an active lifestyle connected with nature. You can enjoy the sounds of the tropical dry forest from your home site and take advantage of hiking trails, horse stables, and a boutique restaurant featuring food and drink with both an international and local flair. This lot is 15,745 m² (3.89 acres) in size and features a generous building pad at its apex with two means of vehicle access. The Seller is including a home design which was never realized (submitted as an example only; buyer to do due diligence on architect approved design). Or you can hire your own architect and personalize your own dream home taking advantage of the sweeping hillside and valley views that surround you.
