Property Description

Situated in a secluded, peaceful area in the mountains of Alajuela, and yet just 30 minutes away from downtown Alajuela and the airport (SJO). This 92,386 square feet (8,583m2) property is surrounded by forest and offers a comfortable climate. Move-in ready house of 2,873 square feet (267m2) and plenty of room for expansion, it is ideal to set up a mountain hostel or to use as a special second home. Every single morning you can enjoy an outstanding view of the central valley while taking your cup of coffee accompanied by hummingbirds at your own terrace. Since this special place is ideal to just relax and get in contact with nature, their lush gardens and greenhouse are some of the places you can spend your mornings at. There is also enough place for indoor activities. A huge living room with a fireplace is the perfect excuse to create memories with your loved ones during the holidays. Have you noticed that Santa is still on demand? He comes through the fireplace! Won't you like to see that spark on your children or grandchildren while telling this tale? Believe me when I am telling you there is enough space for all family members.
