Property Description

Sited on a 2.014 square meters property, this one-story home in San Mateo is perfect for entertaining with its lovely layout and large outdoor area. This romantic villa has a large living room with roof windows and high wood beam ceilings. The open concept kitchen is inviting with beautiful custom made wooden cabinetry, granite countertops, stone walls and center island with double sink. Both bedrooms are generous in size with glass doors that open to an expansive outdoor view terrace. The bathrooms are bursting with charm in its original form. The home also has a laundry room and covered carport. The property is surrounded with a stunning garden full of lush exotic plants. A long stone and concrete walkway surrounded by beautiful greenery leads you the swimming pool and back yard. The home is enveloped by amazing views that make a day at home more scenic. Desirable location and neighborhood with easy access to the heart of San Mateo and Orotina downtown.
