Property Description

This charming Junquillal beach home is perfectly located just 350m from the sand and across the street from one of the best hotel-restaurants in town, the Guacamaya Lodge. Enjoy a well maintained, turnkey villa that is comfortable and secure, allowing you the best possible base for enjoying everything Junquillal has to offer. The location couldn't be more ideal - in addition to being just a block from an idyllic beach, the home is just off a paved road by which you can reach the Liberia International airport in 1.25 hours and the tourism hub of Playa Tamarindo in 30 minutes. The home is simple and cozy, with an open design that allows for air flow when desired. It was built with solid concrete block construction, beautiful teak wood ceilings, tile floors and durable, high quality materials that stand the test of time. The tasteful iron work is a valuable feature and allows you to secure the home whenever you like.
