Property Description

The property is located in San Francisco de San Isidro, a beautiful rural area in the hills outside of Grecia. It is the perfect tranquil place to live with an excellent climate and panoramic views of the Central Valley! The unique design of this two story home centers around a large great room with gas fireplace and ceiling high windows to take advantage of the view and garden area; an open design modern kitchen with stainless steel appliances and granite countertops opens upon the dining-great room area; two good size bedrooms downstairs share a bathroom with walk-in glass block shower; a large two-car finished garage connects to the laundry room with extra refrigerator; upstairs is the ample TV/Office area that overlooks the great room below and enjoys the panoramic views of the massive ceiling high windows; upstairs is also the spacious master bedroom with the bay window sitting area and spacious walk-in closet and bathroom with double mirrored vanity and walk-in glass block shower; all hardwood parquet flooring upstairs creates a warm and comfortable living area.
