Property Description

This massive property including open-aired home nestled between the lush green landscapes is priced to sell! The rolling hills not only provide ocean and valley views but, together with over 7 acres of land, also a great sense of privacy. This accommodates the opportunity for additional construction as well. Located on one of the multiple hilltops this home sits perfectly for you to take full advantage of the gorgeous sunrises and sunsets from the wide upstairs deck. Also, Playa Guiones, Playa Pelada and Ostional are just a short drive away. The open-aired character of the home gives a great sense of outdoor and nature living yet with all comforts and amenities right there for you to enjoy. The outdoor living area connects really well with the master bedroom and bathroom from where you can enjoy the same attractive views. A complimentary bedroom can be found on the side of the home and is easily accessible from the living area as well.
