Property Description

This brand new home features modern architecture with all natural finishes. With panoramic mountain and valley views, you will immediately feel at peace sitting by the infinity lap pool, or on the back porch gazing at the many shades of green in the deep valley. From the living room you can see the fishing boats sailing up the Quepos inlet. The home offers 2 bedrooms in the main house, as well as a separate guest house complete with bathroom and kitchenette. Located in a gated community with other high end homes, top security and beautiful views.
