Property Description

Casa del Río is the definition of "Jungle Chic." Sit on your open air back porch enjoying your garden and large back yard opening up to the Nosara River. The property is over 2/3 acre and situated on high ground on the river bank. Tucked away in the quaint and tranquil pueblo of San Pedro on the east side of Nosara Town this property is unlike any other on the market. The 2 bedroom main house has the space to divide the second floor of the rancho in two or three other spaces or use it for an incredible yoga or dance studio. Outside enjoy a large pool and a fully set up green house for home gardening. On the other side of the pool, the casita has a well appointed master bedroom and kitchenette for your guests.
